

LBRB Productions creates original documentaries, films, television programming, and original series which have both commercial value and the ability to educate and inspire audiences to enact positive social change.

Ms. Saper has held the position of translator and interpreter for LBRB. The projects that Ms. Saper has collaborated with have included:

- Numerous hours creating the movie's subtitles, and translating articles, letters, and documents.
- Performing many on the spot phone conversation interpreting from English to Persian and vice-versa. Due to time differences, some of the phone conversations were at odd times during the day or night, but she was always available and her professional assistance greatly helped in the advancement of the movie.
- She has been our main liaison between the subjects of the movie from two different cultures and languages, and she has managed to make sense of all the underlying cultural differences.
- Ms. Saper translated three songs in the movie, and spent time coaching the singer, who is not a native Iranian, with the accurate pronunciation and diction of the words.

Ms. Saper has proved to be a responsible, reliable, and an experienced person. She is able to perform exact, logic and high-quality translation and has excellent written and verbal communication skills.

Malachi Leopold
Founder & CEO
Left Brain/Right Brain Productions, LLC